

Thursday ∞ 8:25 – 9:15 a.m.
Workshop Session #1

TEACHERS

Quick Tips for Struggling Learners

Room 118

Lori Adams – Private Educational Interventionist, Breakthrough Learning Solutions and Faculty, Summit Professional Education, Oxford, AL

This fast-paced workshop will take you deep into the brains of children with ADHD, dyslexia, and other learning challenges. By understanding the unique wirings of the brains, you can learn simple, immediate tips to work with each child's God-given strengths.

Top Classroom Safety Hazards (Childcare)

Room 120

David White – Sr. Risk Control Consultant, Church Mutual Insurance Company, Merrill, WI

This workshop will discuss the most common safety hazards found in a typical classroom, as well as tips on how to control them.

Resources for the Language Arts Teacher (Middle/High School)

Room 122

Debbie Earwood, Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian School Columbia, SC

Does your language arts class need a boost? TRY THIS – Fifty minutes crammed with teaching ideas/techniques for the language arts teacher. See for yourself in this hands-on presentation of available materials and resources. Your students will love you for the energy and enthusiasm that a new twist on an old assignment can bring to your classroom.

Math: More than Memorization (Elementary)

Room 200

Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

Memorizing facts is important in mathematics, but it should not be our ultimate goal. This workshop will focus on the fact that successful math students go beyond memorization and can really understand math. Participants will be given ways to help their students become mathematical thinkers, not just fact-memorizers.

The Teacher – A Vessel of Love

Room 215

Dr. Matt Williams – AACCS, Chattanooga, TN

In this workshop we consider what a teacher is really to be in the classroom. Many practical illustrations are given on how to be a vessel of love to your students.

Every Student Can Love Reading (Elementary)

Room 216

Rachel Sinclair – Education Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

What are the secrets to a successful reading class? How do you get every student to participate and enjoy it? Not every student is a born “bookworm.” Come learn how to motivate your poorest readers and transform

How to Improve Math Test Scores

Room 218

Kathrine Miller – Professor and Private Tutor, Anniston, AL

Math made easy and fun by utilizing some “old school” techniques and basics! It is really not as difficult as “rocket science.”

Encouraging Oral Communication Skills from the Preschool to the Pulpit

Room 226

Kris Miller, Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

This workshop provides scriptural motivation for teaching our children to effectively communicate on their feet. It also includes ideas for the elementary classroom, as well as all high school subject areas. Numerous contest guidelines and selection ideas are included.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES

Mission Control: Maintaining Mission while Navigating a Changing Culture

Room 116

Edward Earwood – Executive Director, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

We live and educate students in what has been dubbed “The Information Age.” The culture in which we educate Generation Z students is rapidly changing. This workshop will explore how to help Christian educators navigate today’s culture while maintaining the mission of the school.

GENERAL

AAA – Alabama’s Accountability Act – Changing Your Community

Room 101

One Student at a Time

Mona Padgett – Administrator, Conecuh Springs Christian School, Union Springs, AL

Have you wondered how AAA can impact your Christian school? Learn the basics of how you can expand your ministry by partnering with scholarship organizations to give low income students an opportunity for a Christian education. Hear a personal testimony of the impact AAA has made in one community.

Complete in Him*Room 222Judy Brewster – Education and Counseling Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, FL

Today's culture has trained our feminine minds to constantly wonder if we are pretty enough, fit enough, or good enough. The list of products and self-help books seems endless, and the pursuit of a better self-image has left us frustrated, hurting, and unfulfilled. It is not until we put our focus on truly seeing ourselves as God sees us and regard others as more important than ourselves that we can begin to know the satisfaction, security, and fulfillment that we long for. This session will provide ideas to help us and our students develop a truly biblical view of self.

Thursday ∞ Workshop Session #2
9:40 – 10:30 a.m.*TEACHERS*High School Hallway Helps (Middle School and Secondary)*Room 101Trish McCoy – Teacher, Peoples Baptist Academy, McDonough, GA

As an interactive workshop, this class is designed to inundate you with great ideas, easy-to-pull-off fillers, designer bulletin boards, memory tricks, and more...ways to keep teenagers engaged in learning and to keep your sanity intact.

CHAMP – Part 1*Room 118Lori Adams – Private Educational Interventionist, Breakthrough Learning Solutions and Faculty, Summit Professional Education, Oxford, ALBrina Hart – Teacher, Trinity Christian Academy, Oxford, AL

Are there students in your school who are learning at a different rate than others? Are there students who need specialized instruction? Come learn how CHAMP has become a great place to reach students who learn a little off the normal pace, and what a program like this can do for these students in your school. Explore options for identifying students, types of teaching resources, and ideas for monitoring student progress.

Your Students, Your Scientists (Elementary)*Room 200Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

Experimenting in science can be a highlight to your science day, but many teachers cut out experiments due to lack of time and resources. To become scientists, students need hands-on experience. Find out in this hands-on session how you can include simple experiments in your science lessons to help take your students from observers to scientists.

Is Beautiful Penmanship Possible? (Grades 3-5)

Room 216

Rachel Sinclair – Education Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

Whether you grow up writing with ball and stick or flowing cursive writing, penmanship may just become one of your favorite classes to teach. Learn how the four P’s of penmanship, along with energized lessons; create in students a desire to do their best!

Language Intervention Activities for the Preschool Classroom: Promoting Oral Language (Childcare)

Room 226

Kris Miller, Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

This workshop discusses early identification of speech and language problems and provides suggestions for enhancing language skills, particularly within the preschool setting.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES

SIP – School Improvement Planning

Room 116

Edward Earwood – Executive Director, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

This workshop will be a practical look at how to develop a school improvement plan (SIP). Accreditation becomes the benchmark in the growth of a Christian school; however, the ultimate goal of accreditation is to spur the school to become better. Let’s discuss school improvement and how to do it.

Security and Emergency Preparedness at Your Facility (Childcare)

Room 120

David White – Sr. Risk Control Consultant, Church Mutual Insurance Company, Merrill, WI

This workshop will cover actions an organization can take to prepare for an armed assailant incident, as well as provide resources for training.

Developing a Dynamic Practice Plan

Room 220

Danny Lancaster – Athletic Director, Tuscaloosa Christian School, Cottondale, AL

If you don’t have a plan, your players will. This workshop will explain how to make the most of your limited time and space and how to creatively take your team to the next level.

Bringing the Spirit Back (or Giving Birth to it at the Start!)

Room 222

Rose Clevenger – President, Christian Cheerleaders of America, Bethania, NC

Are your games dead? Are Pep Rallies boring? Are the cheerleaders not respected in the school in general? Is Spirit Week effective? Is the overall spirit of the student body nothing to shout about! Let’s perform CPR! Let’s breathe in fresh air! Get ideas from Spirit Professionals who are “in the field” daily!

GENERAL

Stewards of Children – Part 1 (Childcare)

Room 122

Debbie Earwood – Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

This workshop, developed by Darkness to Light, is a prevention and response program which teaches adults how to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse. This two-hour evidence-based workshop provides awareness as well as tools for organizations to help develop policies and procedures for child sexual abuse prevention. Participants who complete both hours of the training program will be awarded a certificate of completion.

(This workshop costs an additional $10 dollars per person. Includes Part 1 and 2)

We're Better Together: Peer Coaching, Collaboration, and PLCs

Room 215

Nancy Tipton – Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

If we want our students to become 21st century learners, we have to become 21st century teachers! For many of us, that means a vastly different approach to pedagogy. We'll explore the formation of a Professional Learning Community in which administrators and teachers share leadership in creating a robust school culture in which everyone becomes a life-long learner.

Thursday ∞ Workshop Session #3
10:55 – 11:45 a.m.

TEACHERS

CHAMP – Part 2

Room 118

Lori Adams – Private Educational Interventionist, Breakthrough Learning Solutions and Faculty, Summit Professional Education, Oxford, AL
Brina Hart – Teacher, Trinity Christian Academy, Oxford, AL

Are there students in your school who are learning at a different rate than others? Are there students who need specialized instruction? Come learn how CHAMP has become a great place to reach students who learn a little off the normal pace, and what a program like this can do for these students in your school. Explore options for identifying students, types of teaching resources, and ideas for monitoring student progress.

Math beyond the Textbook (Elementary)

Room 200

Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

Textbooks are a great resource for helping students to master math concepts, but what about those students who finish with time to spare? Join me to discover ways to take math beyond the textbook. A variety of games, websites, apps and resources will be presented.

Mimio Magic*Room 215Nancy Tipton – Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

A demonstration of “magical illusions”—using Mimio technology in your classroom to generate interest and enthusiasm and to increase student comprehension and retention of concepts. For teachers currently using Mimio and those who are just exploring options.

Making Language and Writing Enjoyable! (Grades 3-5)*Room 216Rachel Sinclair – Education Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

Every teacher is capable of being creative. Come learn how to utilize your own creative talents in the Language Arts subjects so each student is challenged and engaged in the learning process.

Did Adam have a Pet Dinosaurs?: A biblical worldview and the place of Science in the life of the Christian*Room 220Carlton Weathers – Pastor, Grace Fellowship, Anniston, AL

In this session we will discover together the absolute necessity of a biblical worldview and the importance of shaping a child’s worldview through education. After the foundation of worldview is in place we will then discuss how the study of science should be approached as a believer.

Speech-Language Problems in Adolescents*Room 226Kris Miller, Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

Speech-Language problems do not disappear when a child enters middle and high school. In fact, these deficits are often exacerbated by the additional expectations placed upon these students. This workshop will identify the language, literacy, and social issues prevalent in adolescents, and provide accommodations and strategies for building up these abilities necessary for academic and social success.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES
---------------------------------------

Ready, Set, Read*Room 116Edward Earwood – Executive Director, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

This workshop will provide a brief review of 10-12 current books that can enhance your ministry. The reviews will focus on targeted sections of books that can make your time usage more effective. Variety will be included. Join us for a very helpful and practical workshop.

The Relationship between Church and School

Room 218

Dave McCoy – Pastor, Peoples Baptist Church, McDonough, GA

Anyone involved in merging church and school ministries will admit that it is a challenge. Facilities are maxed to the limit, personnel are worn thin; and even if the school functions independently, the church feels (and often bears) the burden of making it all work. It is possible to have a successful year—and maintain sanity—with some proven strategies and practical tips.

GENERAL

Working with What You Have

Room 101

Trish McCoy – Teacher, Peoples Baptist Academy, McDonough, GA

We all find ourselves in different ministries—with unique circumstances, in various locations, with all kinds of people. Herein is the challenge! Get a new perspective on how to make it work “in your neck of the woods.”

Stewards of Children – Part 2 (Childcare)

Room 122

Debbie Earwood – Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

This workshop, developed by Darkness to Light, is a prevention and response program which teaches adults how to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse. This two-hour evidence-based workshop provides awareness as well as tools for organizations to help develop policies and procedures for child sexual abuse prevention. Participants who complete both hours of the training program will be awarded a certificate of completion. (This workshop costs an additional $10 dollars per person. Includes Part 1 and 2)

Taking Your Thoughts Captive

Room 222

Judy Brewster – Education and Counseling Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

What should you do when you are worried, anxious, or afraid? This session will help you view these crippling emotions through the lens of the Word of God, helping you to know and to apply the solutions given there.

Friday ∞ Workshop Session #4
8:40 – 9:30 a.m.

TEACHERS

Creative Learning and Engagement in the Everyday Classroom (All grade levels)

Room 118

Brina Hart – Teacher, Trinity Christian Academy, Oxford, AL

Come learn how to incorporate games into your classroom that will help students with skills that are foundational to learning! You can help increase your students' processing, reasoning, auditory, visual, memory, and social skills just by playing games!

One, Two—I See You (Childcare)

Room 122

Debbie Earwood – Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

Characteristic behavior and development trends for children, birth to age two will be presented. Signs of possible developmental delay for each age level will also be included in the presentation.

Who's Running the Show? (Elementary)

Room 200

Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

Teachers play many roles in the classroom. One of the most important is as a classroom manager. Come learn from a Biblical perspective how to organize your classroom for the benefit of both your students and you. If you don't manage your classroom, your students will!

Ringling Excellence (Middle/High School)

Room 215

Nancy Tipton – Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

Understanding the art of handbell ringing and achieving excellence with your school's performing groups. Gain insight from a veteran judge and handbell director on preparing for competitions and concerts effectively. This workshop will focus on what a judge or educated audience member expects to see and hear from an excellent handbell choir. It will also provide hands-on experience with developing beautiful technique, using drills and exercises for accurate and precise ringing, and selecting and preparing appropriate music.

Developing Godly Character in our Children (Kindergarten/Elementary)

Room 222

Judy Brewster – Education and Counseling Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

Luke 2 has given us a brief glimpse into the life of Jesus Christ as a twelve-year-old. His example there shows us a child that is a far cry from the average adolescent today. What if we could help our children and students mirror the beautiful picture that we see in the adolescent years of Jesus? This session will provide several important character traits that parents and teachers should be developing in their children before they reach the age of twelve. Practical ideas will be given to encourage the development of Christian character in the kindergarten/elementary-age child.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES

Providing for and Protecting Your Ministry (Childcare)

Room 101

Mona Padgett – Administrator, Conecuh Springs Christian School, Union Springs, AL

If your church has considered beginning a childcare ministry, where do you start? If you have an existing ministry, what are the laws governing your center? If you're beginning or in your tenth year, learn how to protect your ministry and provide a Christ centered approach to childcare.

Keeping a Christian School Christian

Room 218

Dave McCoy – Pastor, Peoples Baptist Church, McDonough, GA

In today's society, Christian schools are slowly drifting away from their purpose. Christian education is important, and it is biblical. While delivering strong academics to students, we cannot drop the ball spiritually. Christ is the goal, and we must stay focused. Let's keep our Christian schools Christian.

GENERAL

What Makes a School *Excellent

Room 116

Edward Earwood – Executive Director, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

Different schools advertise excellence in some aspect of their school; some even boldly proclaim their entire school to be excellent. What makes a school excellent? This workshop will focus on several factors common to excellent Christian schools.

Are You Ready for the Conversation? (Upper Elementary/High School)

Room 216

Keith Currie – Pastor, Covenant Church of Mobile, Mobile, AL

Patricia Currie – Administrator, Covenant Christian School, Mobile, AL

The focus of this workshop will be effectively engaging our youth in discussions on wholesome, healthy, righteous sexuality. You'll be informed and equipped in a fast-paced session.

Developing and Maintaining a Drama Program

Room 220

Jerry Partin – Alpha Kappa Drama Ministries, Montgomery, AL

Do you want a drama program or a drama class? If you want a program, get answers and ideas for year after year interest and success.

Friday ∞ Workshop Session #5

10:00 – 10:50 a.m.

TEACHERS

Animal Art (Kindergarten/Elementary)

Room 118

Sharon Craiger – Teacher, Gardendale Christian Academy, Gardendale, AL

The workshop will focus on a survey of animals in art and literature illustrations, using art to teach animal facts. Using classroom art projects based on how artists see animals will also be covered.

By the Way (Middle/High School)

Room 120

Mark Bell - Teacher, Tabernacle Christian School, Gardendale, AL

Jessica Conder – Teacher, Tabernacle Christian School, Gardendale, AL

Sometimes the best math lessons are not the planned lessons, but those that are prompted by the main topic. These topics allow you to get the how and why of problems and higher level thinking processes.

Three, Four—I Can Do More (Childcare)

Room 122

Debbie Earwood – Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

Characteristic behavior and development trends for children, age two to four, will be presented. Signs of possible developmental delay will also be included for each age level.

A, E, I, O and You! Can Teach Phonics and Reading (Kindergarten/Lower Elementary)

Room 200

Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

First, Mrs. Short, Mr. Short and the other BJU Press Phonics Characters will help you understand the how and why of the BJU Press phonics approach. Then we will take a close up look at teaching reading groups on differentiated levels to help meet the needs of all students.

The 24/7 Classroom (Middle/High School)*Room 215Nancy Tipton – Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

Technology tools for extending your learning time with your students...without killing yourself! We will examine tried and true free technology, such as Symbaloo, Piktochart, Weebly, and Google Classroom, in a how-to workshop on building a class website, increasing and improving communication with families, and providing more learning experiences for your students than you could ever provide during normal school hours. Enjoy just watching, or bring a laptop, if you want to play along with us!

The Most Crucial Class Every Day...Bible (Grades 3-6)*Room 216Rachel Sinclair – Education Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

Reading, writing, and arithmetic are important. But, a daily Bible class is where character training is most effectively accomplished under the leadership and direction of the Holy Spirit. Come learn how Bible class can also be the best part of each day.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES
---------------------------------------

Guidance Counselor: An Essential Partner in Christian Education*Room 116Ashley Tyson, MSCP – Guidance Counselor, Tuscaloosa Christian School, Cottondale, AL

This workshop will include an overview of the responsibilities that a guidance counselor can take on to increase student success, alleviate administrative staff, and promote the Biblical worldview in Christian education.

Topics Included: The responsibilities will include: 1) Becoming the ACT champion, 2) Coordinating dual enrollment opportunities to promote advanced learning when budgets don't allow for additional AP courses, 3) Counseling students battling anxiety and depression, 4) Testing students for learning disabilities to provide insight for parents and students as well as minor accommodations, 5) Establishing solid tutoring and mentoring programs to aid senior high students in helping reach elementary and junior high students, 6) Increasing the number of students offered scholarships by colleges, and 7) Encouraging parents and students to depend on Christ through every step of the college admission process.

Legal and Safe (Childcare)*Room 218J. Robin Mears – Executive Director, Alabama Christian Education Association, Gardendale, AL

Your child daycare ministry must be both legal and safe! How to achieve this and meet ACEA daycare certification requirements will be presented.

GENERAL

I'll Get You and Your Little Dog Too

Room 101

Trish McCoy – Teacher, Peoples Baptist Academy, McDonough, GA

Infamous Miss Gulch made quite a name for herself with that line! If we could just figure out what makes people tick, life would be so much easier. We are fairly complex people if you consider birth order, temperaments, and spiritual gifts—and we are all a mix of those. Understanding ourselves and others makes for a much smoother working environment.

Dealing with Difficult Relationships

Room 222

Judy Brewster – Education and Counseling Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

We know we should be able to get along with others, yet sometimes conflict seems unavoidable. This session will not only provide biblical principles on handling difficult relationships but also discuss practical steps for handling conflict in a God-honoring way.

Asperger Syndrome and High Functioning Autism: Mind-Blindness Coming to a Classroom Near You – Part 1

Room 226

Kris Miller, Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

An individual's ability to think about what another individual may be thinking and his ability to act upon it is deficient in individuals with Asperger Syndrome and high-functioning autism. These children are becoming more and more prevalent in Christian schools. This workshop describes the disorders and the problems of faulty information processing and expressive communication skills seen in these individuals.

Friday ∞ Workshop Session #6

10:55 – 11:45 a.m.

TEACHERS

Using the “Two T’s” in a 21st Century Classroom

Room 101

Wes McLaughlin – Faculty, Department Chair of History, Calvary Baptist Academy, Huntsville, AL

Two major things that may be left out or misdirected in today's classrooms are tactile learning and technology. In this workshop, we will discuss new techniques for tailoring your teaching to reach all learners (visual, auditory, and kinesthetic) as well as using technology in an engaging way for the 21st century classroom.

Mother Goose on the Loose (Childcare)*Room 122

Debbie Earwood – Administrative Assistant, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

Nurturing a love for learning from infancy requires that conscientious effort be made to encourage the mental, emotional, and spiritual development, along with the physical development, of children from birth. There is much that early childcare professionals can do to stimulate the development of children’s minds and ready them for school and life.

Science Strategies for Success (Elementary)*Room 200

Cindy Dickenson – National Consultant, Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, SC

What makes a successful science teacher? Successful science teachers have goals and use resources to help their students develop a Biblical worldview. Join me to discover the goals and resources you can include in your classroom to help make your science classroom a success.

Burning the Box in English Class (Middle/High School)*Room 215

Nancy Tipton – Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

A challenge to honestly evaluate how we teach, our classroom management techniques, and the results we’re achieving. We might not just think outside the box—we might burn it! Ideas covered will include collaboration in the classroom, motivating students without punishment, and developing critical thinking skills and creativity.

Secrets to Spelling Success! (Grades 2-6)*Room 216

Rachel Sinclair – Education Faculty, Pensacola Christian College, Pensacola, FL

One of the most important building blocks for student success is spelling class. By creating an environment where students not only enjoy learning new things but also increase their ability to express themselves, you are opening doors to numerous opportunities. Join us to learn effective techniques.

Helping Students Who Struggle with Math*Room 218

Kathrine Miller – Professor and Private Tutor, Anniston, AL

Does anyone under age twenty really know the multiplication tables? No fear...teachers are not “math-a-magicians” but we try hard and really do care!

Go West Young Man: The role of Christian thought in shaping western culture*Room 220

Carlton Weathers – Pastor, Grace Fellowship, Anniston, AL

It is undeniable that the development of western society was largely influenced by Christian teaching. Join me for this session as we explore the role of Christianity in the development of culture in the west and as we discuss how that sets the west apart from the east.

PASTORS/ADMINISTRATORS/COACHES

A Christian Philosophy of Athletics

Room 120

Danny Lancaster – Athletic Director, Tuscaloosa Christian School, Cottondale, AL

Why do we play sports? Does your athletic program fulfill your school's mission? Are your student-athletes growing more like Christ? This workshop will remind coaches and Athletic Directors of the importance of a Biblical Worldview in athletics.

Perfect Practice Makes Perfect

Room 222

Rose Clevenger – President, Christian Cheerleaders of America, Bethania, NC

Do your practices sometimes feel like a waste of time? Or a gossip session? Or a laugh-fest? How can you make them productive, teach life lessons, get prepared for the next game, pep rally or competition all within the short time and the short number of practices that you get each week? Learn how to make and follow your perfect practice plan.

GENERAL

Halfway Home: Dealing with Discouragement

Room 116

Edward Earwood – Executive Director, South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, Columbia, SC

Research indicates that more than one-third of new Christian school teachers do not continue beyond their third year of teaching. This same research cites discouragement as a common denominator among all teachers, even those that have continued faithful in service. The workshop focuses on effective measures to combat this enemy of success.

Keeping Your Students Safe: School Security Issues and Solutions (Childcare)

Room 118

Ed Marshman, B.A., J.D. – Owner of Marshman Training and Consulting (MTC) Huntsville, AL

The presentation covers school security threats and solutions to prevent and mitigate those threats.

Asperger Syndrome and High Functioning Autism: Mind-Blindness Coming to a Classroom Near You – Part 2

Room 226

Kris Miller, Faculty, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

The deficit areas of Asperger Syndrome are discussed, with a particular emphasis on problems faced in the school setting. Suggested intervention techniques are described, with an emphasis on meeting the spiritual needs and preventing misunderstanding between these students and professionals in the school setting.